

THE BEGINNING

Cosmograph 1

1. I am a cross to be borne, a heavy burden
2. Waking my lights on the shores of the world, the crystalline.
3. Shining my rays in the rays of death that are all-obscuring.
4. Keeping the light refulgurating.
5. I am the star-driver, keeping a steady course.
6. I have bound up your sandal and set you on your way
7. Heading your course through the murk of the world
8. That was created as a test.

9.20 pm 3rd January 1987

Cosmograph 2

1. The dust of the world!
2. That comes to be beautiful.
3. For out of nothing I have fashioned many things.
4. The automobile and the aircraft carrier
5. Both come from my mind, working in the mind of man
6. To embastion man in his new beginning.
7. And long do I hear the calls of the plaintiff ones.
8. The starving millions that are crying for food.
9. And the ones torn by wars on the face of the earth.
10. And I stand with Christ in the highest creation
11. Watching the cosmic movements far into the future.
12. Where comes a little thing that may be a disease
13. From out the cosmic depths where the comets abound.
14. Seeding good and bad for man in different measures.
15. And I am the uplifter of man, and the remover of burdens.

9.45 pm 3rd January 1987

Cosmograph 3

1. The Stander! The Non-Effervescent.
2. The ruler of the molecules in their moving.
3. The Ever-stepping onward, who has made man from a clot of blood.
4. To be decisive in wide spaces.

5. For out of the mud the oyster makes the pearl
6. So myself: out of something rotten I make the beautiful to appear.
7. For the Creation has become rotten: and out of it I will fashion a new race
8. Resplendent and glorious on the face of the earth.
9. Out of a million men I will make one to be the leader of all.
10. And his face shall outshine the sun.
11. And I am Xeru-Menon, Angel of the Presence
12. Rapidly moving in my ways
13. That are serene as the moon in her sailing.

7.10 pm January 10th 1987

Cosmograph 4

1. For the world is pregnant
2. Awaiting revelation.
3. Caught up in time, awaiting reckoning.
4. For who shall have bread to eat, in six hundred years time?
5. And who shall have clothes to wear, in six hundred years time?
6. For I am the apostle of the millennium
7. The coming one.
8. Who withdraws if he comes too close.
9. And I have come close to the earth, to see what fructifies there.
10. To see what two thousand years have brought.
11. And the bird on the wing is close to me
12. Displaying on its feathers the history of the earth.
13. That turns lonely in the depths of space
14. And if people die, it is only that they gain space
15. To mount aloft like eagles into the crown of the world
16. Saluting the great and brave, who are arranged in their centuries.
17. Awaiting the millennium.

14th January 1987

Cosmograph 6

1. I come at the ringing of a bell.
2. Walking the vortices of oblivion.
3. I look aloft into the sky

4. Telling what soon may come to pass.
5. And I hear my children calling, from the belly of the earth
6. That has parturated and brought forth.
7. I am the shadow of God, reflected on the face of the waters.
8. Swimming in slow time across the face of the centuries
9. Listening to what prayers man brings forth.
10. And I am like butter in the mouth, melting slowly.
11. And I speak to all degrees in their positive order.
12. And I am the Son of the Thunder, St. John by name
13. Bringing another apocalypse to view
14. Speaking in measured tones to all the human race.
15. And the list of martyrs is endless, a shroud without end
16. Wrapped around the ends of the Earth and drawn in.
17. And these Cosmographs will come in measured succession until you realize what your part is therein.

7.00 pm 18th January 1987

Cosmograph 11

1. And many were the gods that died in the time of Christ
2. Lopped off from their altars like trees of dead wood.
3. But some are now born again, to lead mankind in ways of splendour
4. And in ways of poverty and chastity, and in ways of obedience.
5. I am the robe of the monk, and the robe of the priest
6. Folded and worn in due solemnity
7. Casting my blessings upon the water
8. So they should return seven times increasing
9. And long have I seen through the corners of the world
10. Picking up the fragments of broken civilizations.
11. For I am the all-fearing
12. Fearing for humanity in its wayward adventure
13. For humanity must decide whether to come or to go, whether to stay or to leave
14. And I have built fortifications, deep in the earth
15. That stand against the time when the world shall be rolled up as a piece of silk.
16. And I am the director of the planet, the self-motivating.
17. The mover from planet to planet, the stranger.

1st February 1987

Cosmograph 101*THE UNVEILING

1. Behold the unveiling, the Night wherein all nights end:
2. When the stars stop in their courses and give thanksgiving for a safe return
3. Who have been sent out into the depths, to proclaim the Mission of the Supreme
4. Who created a million galaxies from Love, that existence should expand.
5. Behold the day when the Soul stops singing, when it becomes aware of the ills of the world
6. And pledges itself to seek for a union that will heal the ills of the world
7. For a lack of love generates suffering, when gods grow old, and lose their grip on the worlds assigned them
8. For Zeus is dead, struck down by Jesus before his prime was over
9. And Pan died of old age: the Voice announced his death over the whole Mediterranean in the early years of the Christian Era
10. But Jesus is unkillable: drawn as He is from a different sphere
11. Created by the Most High to be the builder of a mighty aeon
12. Anger was His, but also the sacred and compassionate heart.
13. He strove to build a Universe centred upon humanity
14. And time will be, when all the Dead will be raised up
15. From the West to the East, in a mighty whirlwind movement.

21 July 1988

Cosmograph 102 THE STATER

1. The Stater, the Bridger, the One surpassing all magnitude or limit
2. The One who communed alone with Itself, stirring the primaeval waters.
3. Who out of the Pralaya drew the seeds of plants, of fish, the seed of animals strong and brave
4. And from Its forehead created humanity, to be the leader of the inferior creation
5. Who communed alone for long aeons, hearing the echoes of emptiness borne from depth to depth
6. Surrounded on all sides by the Void, silent, endless
7. Who took a first cosmos, and made a second
8. Who took the second cosmos, and made a third
9. Each one built to endure, three cosmoi interrelated and endlessly changing
10. The Cosmos coming-into-being; the Cosmos established, and the Cosmos coming-out-of-being

11. Each one made to complement the Others
12. Formed from the formless and made from the unmade
13. Vaster than the age of a light-aeon
14. Filled with angels, gods and intelligences
15. That glister in the planetary lights
16. Bending down to draw humanities from a hundred thousand earths
17. That are separated one from the others, until their destinies are accomplished.

23 July 1988

Cosmograph 103 THE NEW LAW

1. At the age of twenty-five, Jesus walked in the mountains
2. And he saw a golden ship coming out of the sun, whose passengers and crew were gods and Angels
3. And they said, "Come with us, we are ambassadors of a new Law"
4. And they said, "Behold, when you are thirty, we will send you Twelve Apostles, and seventy-two believers
5. Who will observe the New Law we give you: Love your neighbour"
6. And Jesus understood, and lodged the Law in His Heart
7. And waited for the Time when he would begin His Mission.

2 August 1988

Cosmograph 104 FROM THE EARTH TO THE MOON

1. After He ascended, Jesus walked from the earth to the Moon, on the backs of angels, spread out to make a bridge for him.
2. And on the Moon, He established prayer schools, full of unborn souls
3. And these were the archetypal precursors of the monasteries, that were to flourish later in the Earth
4. And I am a Druid-Angel that hails from Wales and Ireland, a nested bird, a proud lapwing in flight
5. And Jesus Christ is my Brother, I have walked hand-in-hand with Him through Hadabran, the Garden of the New Souls
6. And I went with Him to the West, to Avalon, where the Holy Grail was lodged.

2 August 1988

Cosmograph 105 IMMORTALITY

1. Consider Immortality: it is like a gem that none values at its true worth
2. Taken from the depths of the world, rare and precious.

3. Consider Immortality: it is like a net cast in the ocean
4. And it brings up silver fish, which are the souls of the blessed
5. Who find time for reflection and prayer: the wonders of the Universe
6. For prayer makes the soul strong, and brings an Immortal Spirit to birth
7. Hovering above the eyebrows and accompanying a man or woman through the snares of life.
8. And I am a Druid-Angel, I am mixed with the Celtic Twilight
9. That hails from Wales and Ireland, a nested bird, a proud lapwing in flight
10. And Jesus Christ is my Brother, I have walked hand-in-hand with Him through Hadabran, the Garden of the New Souls
11. And I went with [took] Him to the West, to Avalon, where the Holy Grail was lodged.
12. And Immortality is a thing to be treasured, offered to every man, woman and child in the course of a human life.
13. But most refuse the gift, for they are of short-sight, preferring the Here-and-now to the Hereafter.

4th August 1988

Cosmograph 106 THE AWAKENED MIND

1. Let us celebrate the Awakened Mind, that contemplates the Supreme Throne without fear or aversion
2. That is implanted in every child at the age of Two, and takes root or else withers
3. At puberty is the mind-plant determined: whether it shall blossom or perish.
4. For some choose this world, and some the hereafter
5. And some make a worse choice: declining both this earth and the hereafter
6. Seeking to destroy this world with bombs and petrol, or to make it a polluted planet
7. And there are those who set up experiments, and are cruel to animals, experimenting on the naïve zone of Creation
8. Injuring anything from a mouse to a monkey in the name of a twisted process.
9. And I am the Solar Logos, raising himself up to oversee this solar system
10. Created by the Supreme, to solve a great dilemma:
11. Whether humanity should go forward or recede, multiply or perish.
12. And this is the difference between an angel and a God: an angel is created by the Supremacy, and a God is self-created by his own initiative.

11 August 1988

Cosmograph 107 THE BURNING GROUND

1. This is the Cosmograph of the Burning Ground
2. You are standing with naked feet on a sea of flame
3. Wondering why all the gods of the past seem to have deserted you
4. And wondering if the gods of the future will be friendly or hostile
5. And I tell you: not one thing has been forgotten in the destiny of the universe
6. It shall continue, under one form or the other, for ever and ever
7. Until the sky turns purple and the sun expands, to engulf the earth in a sea of flame
8. And the waters shall vanish, and the mountains will shake
9. But I shall conserve my chosen, in a ship with four wings
10. That shall glide to Alpha Centauri and hover around that star
11. For an aeon or more, until the sun subsides.
12. And humanity shall be mutated, in not a small way
13. Reassembled as angels, with immortal bodies
14. And a third eye in the head, to perceive all essences
15. And enfolding wings wherewith to fly, and hands and feet wherewith to work and walk.

15 August 1988

Cosmograph 108 THE SPEAR

1. For the Almighty lifted up a spear and beat[ed] with it upon the primaeval waters
2. And immediately the stars and planets sprang up, out of the crests of the waves, and began to shine
3. Then the Almighty drew back His Arm, and flung the spear far into the darkness
4. And the spear, one hundred million miles long, began to glide and hurtle through the depths
5. And to this day, it flies through the depths, moving ever farther away
6. And forever it will fly, opening up new spaces, new stars and new planets
7. And this spear is a warrant, that humankind, and all intelligent life will continue forever.
8. And then the Almighty took another spear, and flung it to the Zenith as a target, and it began to ascend.
9. And this spear too will, ascend forever, as a token that the heavens will forever be free to take and ransom souls, and to pour mercies upon the worlds
10. And I am Xeru Menon, made in the partition of the future, my wing tips brush the present, but I will always be born after you die, and always die before you are born.

16th August 1988

Cosmograph 109    FOUR ANGELS

1.     When Death strikes, project the mind outward beyond the decaying body
2.     And abide in the soul sphere, whilst four angels support your hands and your body
3.     Grasping the soul sphere, the mantle of glory that enshrouds the Earth
4.     And guides your prayer upward, toward the stars, and towards the location of the Supreme Throne
5.     To catch a glimpse of the Refulgence, before departing to one's chosen sphere
6.     Which could be Heaven or Purgatory, depending on the power of one's soul, or maybe a human rebirth
7.     Where the spirit remains master, fashioning the soul for its belonging
8.     For the soul envelops the spirit, just as the body envelops the soul
9.     For the soul is indivisible: it fashions the body,
10.    Making then organs and glands to be conduits for its living substance
11.    For I am the soulmaker, the spiritmaker
12.    Labouring long for the resuscitation of humanity from the primal core
13.    And I have seen many races pass over and disappear
14.    Leaving traces in the cosmos: that make up a history.

27th August 1988

Cosmograph 110    GOD IS A LANGUAGE

1.     For this is a Crusade: to bring Christians back to the Interpretation of the Supreme
2.     For God is a language: an essence distilled from the Spirit by the movement of the planets
3.     Everywhere at once and at all time
4.     Listening intently to the speech of the worlds
5.     That comes out at the opening of the cosmic sphere
6.     And Jesus Christ is like unto a planet, roaming the skies
7.     With an entourage of ten thousand angels surrounding Him that sleep not neither by night nor by day
8.     And He has a crown given to Him by the Supreme that is like ten thousand suns burning
9.     And He is a celestial prince, ruling the Middle Earth
10.    And many swear by Jesus Christ, both advertently and inadvertently

11. Rarely thinking of the meaning of what they say, or what they intend thereby.
12. And His planet is the celestial court, where souls flock after death
13. Seeking to hear a judgement on the life just lived, and for permission to move onward.

1st September 1988

Cosmograph 111 THE APOCALYPSE

1. From the feet of Jesus run streams of living water empurpling the void
2. From His forehead a ray of light proceeds that searches the outer darkness
3. For He has commanded the stars to revolve together to prepare for the Apocalypse
4. But the Apocalypse will be in no wise as predicted by men
5. A giant sphere shall envelop the Earth, and protect it from the expanding sun
6. But this will not be for millions of years hence
7. Instead, the wide angels will flock to the Earth and raise a humankind
8. Made from the ashes of the old humanity, that perished because it was too proud
9. And Jesus is mounted on Halansa, the Holy Spirit
10. And He circles the Earth once a night, to hear what prayers are rendered
11. Then soars into the Zenith and consorts with the stars, where the future abides
12. Calm, serene and tempered, the future is a gem that shines with a lustre of jade or emerald, set in an arched booth, whose pillars are scarlet.
13. And this game is conscious, a living being
14. Created by the Elohim before they created the Earth
15. One of the Supernal Wonders, which were made an aeon before humanity's birth

1st September 1988

Cosmograph 112 THE SPIRIT OF THE FUTURE

1. For the Spirit of the Future is as a woman clothed in cloth of gold
2. And She is remote, with a wand made of little planets that glow
3. And She is far removed from the Cosmos, in a place only the Supreme Throne knows
4. And far away She sings a ballad of the life to come
5. And Her hair is the colour of the rainbow, and her feet the colour of glass
6. And She is reflected in a sea of cerulean water
7. That hovers above the Zenith of the galaxies
8. And She has a name known only to the Supreme Throne

9. And Her face is too brilliant even for the angels to look upon.
10. Only the Supreme Throne looks upon it, and knows its Love thereby.

2nd September 1988

Cosmograph 113 ST FRANCIS

1. And let us praise the Lord Jesus Christ, who has the Azure Throne as His resting place
2. Nailed to the sky, and His open wounds bleed freely, redeeming the universe
3. Making evil to cower, and flee back to the dark places it issues from.
4. For I am Xeru Menon, Angel of the Presence
5. Born from an egg hatched in the breath of the Almighty
6. Gestated in six ages and revolving in the seventh
7. For Jesus revolves in every age, and in His Circumference the past ages are still present
8. Preserved upon the tablets which were inscribed upon before the world began.
9. And in the 12th century Jesus wept in the heavenly mansions
10. And from the tears of his eyes the soul of St Francis of Assisi was born
11. The reincarnation of the essence of Christ, that had the stigmata imprinted on his body
12. By the angels Michael and Gabriel descending on a mountain.

9th September 1988

Cosmograph 114 FIGHT EVIL

1. You are pledged to fight evil wherever it rears its head
2. The thousand-headed serpent that has its roots in the pit of hell
3. Howsoever small your strength, pledged to fight evil and its hideous consequences
4. For movie and television have brought deceit and violence and malevolence to a large degree
5. Impregnated in a humanity that knows not the great difference between good and evil
6. New to the Earth — the thousands of millions
7. Born for the first time, and not educated in morality.
8. And the Christian Mysteries are mocked in the movies and the priesthood have little say

9. But allow a great religion to pass away unchallenged.
10. For television changes the perspectives of the Earth
11. Changing the perspective of spirit to soul, soul to matter
12. And a new religion will grow from the wreckage of the Earth
13. Confident in the ways that lead from earth to the Heavens.

25th September 1988

Cosmograph 115 THE EQUINOX

1. Now is the time of the Equinox, when Winter wraps his gloomy hands around the Northern Hemisphere
2. When swallows fly south and the landscape is wrapped in mists and frosts
3. And an Angel seated at the right hand of the Supreme Throne narrates the history of the world
4. And if one even is out of place, a flash of lightning issues from the Throne and corrects it.
5. For there is an element of free play in the future, and there is no inexorable, impersonal Law of Karma or cause and effect
6. And no inexorable Law of Destiny or Fate, and no necessity intervening on Humankind.
7. For humanity is free to guide the future, and free to ask for Pardon at any point
8. Save a second before the detonation of the Hydrogen Bomb — then, there will be no freedom left.
9. And I am Xeru Menon, an ambassador from the starry Heavens
10. Brought to the Earth by the pleas of human beings, but most of all by the unborn.

25th September 1988

Cosmograph 116 THE BLACK CURTAIN

1. For death is like a black curtain, woven into the tapestry of the world
2. And when a person dies, they go before the curtain, and wait for it to open
3. And when it opens, the person is projected up, a thousand miles above the Earth
4. Until they stand within the Light of the Presence
5. And to the Light of the Presence they confess all that they have done, both evil, and good

6. And if the person has done evil, then is it filled with remorse and regret
7. And swears to strive harder in the next life,
8. To cling to the good and reject the evil
9. And the remorse and regret is so strong it imprints a pact upon the astral heart
10. That the person will believe in God through good and ill.
11. And there is not one soul that will not eventually be saved
12. Even tho' the saving take thirty thousand years.
13. And human speech is a miracle: evolved through millions and ten thousands of years
14. First from crude mouthings, until it becomes the delights of song.

29th September 1988

Cosmograph 117 MERLIN

1. I celebrate the name of Merlin: prime enchanter of the Britons.
2. And when Merlin was a nascent god, roving the spaces between the worlds
3. He came into the Council Chamber of Christ and saluted the scion of the Most High
4. And Merlin said: "I will deliver to You the Children of Britain"
5. And Christ said: "Is this free, or with conditions?"
6. And Merlin said: "With conditions"
7. And Christ said: "What conditions?"
8. And Merlin said: "That you donate a phial or cup of your blood to be preserved in Britain"
9. And Christ said: "I will donate a phial of blood and a cup of blood and the cup itself."
10. And Merlin said: "I deliver to you the Britons for two thousand years"
11. And Christ said: "I will pour my blood into the British skies, and the Britons will be mine forever."
12. And Merlin said: "So be it: I will raise up poets in Britain who will approach you from all sides: some believing, some disbelieving."
13. And Jesus said: "My spirit will be in them, even if they disbelieve — the spirit of honour and truth, that feeds the human soul."

1st October 1988

Cosmograph 118 COSMOCRACY

1. Call the people of this book Cosmocrats; and the religion of this book Cosmocracy
2. For I have drawn a line in the depths, and said: "From this line a new religion begins"
3. And many angels have been re-educated; to oversee the coming change
4. And many angels have taken their place in a new millennium, to foresee what evolves.
5. For angels are antigravity waves, radiating from the centre of the universe:
6. The power that keeps the stars apart, and rationalizes their orbits
7. For angels are also Pure Consciousness and Light that moves across the aeons
8. That span the perspectives of the years, and undertake the Great Adventure.
9. And I remember Hildegard of Bingen; the 12th century prophetess
10. Who wrote of the Supremacy of Earth as the Mother of creation
11. And I remember Joachim of Floris, who predicted the three ages:
12. The Age of the Father, the Age of the Son, and the Age of the Holy Spirit
13. The Father's Age that of water, the Son's Age that of wine, and the Holy Spirit's Age that of oil — the Age we are now in.

4th October 1988

Cosmograph 119 HILDEGAARD OF BINGEN

1. I am the expanse of the ocean, the expanse of the mountains and the expanse of the atmosphere
2. For the Supreme made a picture of me in its mind and then it created the Earth
3. And the Earth was created by the Supreme through the agency of the Elohim: the living intelligent powers of Nature
4. And science is in error when it believes there are no intelligences in Nature
5. For they proceed by Universal Law; and are obedience in its essence.
6. And they know the details of the Divine Plan which will fructify in this particular earth in millions of years' time
7. But patience is needed; and a desire to banish greed, that ugly blemish on the countenance of humanity
8. For the Elohim can take revenge through humankind : as witness hurricanes and floods
9. And Hildegard of Bingen pointed out that Nature will take recompense if humankind becomes exorbitant

10. Do not martyr Nature, or She will martyr you.

4th October 1988

Cosmograph 120 THE EARTHMAKER

1. From other worlds you come: through mind and matter woven into a human being
2. But do not elevate the human above the divine: forgetting your destiny is rooted in the sky
3. For the Galaxy was formed by a hand faster than the fastest lightning
4. And was made as a carrier of intelligence: striving to evolve>
5. To other worlds you go: driven by a spirit whose wind is the soul
6. And every stone, brook, tree and animal strives and desires to become a human being
7. To inherit the gift of speech and the gift of Apprehension of the divine
8. And every star was once a stone, and once a human being
9. Until the Earthmaker raised them up above the Earth, and have them into the hand of gods and angels
10. Who gave each star a body of human shape, but subtle of substance, expanding or contracting at will.
11. And the stars are make or female, riding the depths of Space for millions of years
12. Learning secrets taught in the nebulae: distant, awe-inspiring
13. Building future worlds for souls to inhabit that on Earth are but a dream.
14. And take care of your dreams: they are glimpses of the outside of the world
15. Where Hope incarnates, and where Freedom is born.

13th October 1988

Cosmograph 121 DO NOT PLOT

1. Do not plot to overthrow the sky: or the sky will uproot you.
2. For there is a divine governance set in the Earth, and in the Heavens, and in all that lies between
3. And this governance has been from ageless times, and will be till ageless times
4. The reflection of the Supremacy in the breastworks of creation
5. Where the thrush and the cornflower vie for pre-eminence, there is my Love
6. A thing gentle and surpassing kind, bedded in the Heart of Nature, where the

dewdrop is formed

7. And when the Earth sweats, it rains, sending cooling showers across the continents
8. For the sun draws up water from the Earth, and places it in the sky
9. Who says the sun does no work?
10. But humanity is cutting down the forests, and polluting the rivers and seas
11. Proud men: who do not know where their Love has gone.
12. For Love is an eternal essence: a gazelle that roams the mountains of paradise
13. Looking for lights on the heights of Earth
14. For as your Love is, so is your Light.

14th October 1988
